▶ GREAT PERFORMANCES “New York Philharmonic Reopening of David Geffen Hall”

Friday, November 4 at 9pm

The New York Philharmonic celebrates the reopening of its fully renovated home at Lincoln Center's David Geffen Hall with a triumphant performance of Beethoven's 9th Symphony, conducted by the Phil's Music Director Jaap van Zweden. Also featured is the world premiere of a NYPhil commission by Puerto Rican composer Angélica Negrón. The opening of the state-of-the-art facility will reaffirm the essential role of New York City's cultural life, as well as mark a historic comeback for the world's most dynamic city for the arts following the challenges of the COVID-19 pandemic. Photo Credit: Chris Lee

▶ AUSTIN CITY LIMITS “Lyle Lovett and His Large Band 8/24”

Saturday, November 5 at 11:30pm

See the long-awaited return of a favorite Texas son—singer, songwriter and ACL Hall of Fame legend Lyle Lovett—appearing with his iconic Large band to showcase 12th of June, his first new album in ten years. Lovett first appeared on ACL in 1985, and has notably appeared on the series more times than any act with the exception of Willie Nelson. He returns for his ninth headlining appearance on the ACL stage, after having been memorably inducted into the ACL Hall of Fame in 2019 by actor Sean Penn. *Photo Credit: Courtesy Austin City Limits/Austin PBS. Part 1: Monday, November 14 at 8pm

Part 2: Tuesday, November 15 at 8pm

Revisit the Iran hostage crisis, when 52 Americans were held hostage at the U.S. Embassy in Tehran. Unfolding like a political thriller, the story is told through the eyewitness accounts of those who took part in the events.
