Leah's Legacy

PREMIERES SATURDAY, APRIL 29 AT 10AM on WYES-TV

Cooking in the kitchen are Chase family members who have led the restaurant since Leah's death in 2019. Viewers will meet Leah's grandson Edgar "Dook" Chase IV, who now oversees the restaurant's kitchen; her niece Cleo Robinson, who joined Leah in the kitchen in 1980; and the restaurant's newest chef, Leah's great-granddaughter Zoe Chase. Paired with some of the menus are specialty cocktails crafted by Leah's granddaughter Eve Marie Haydel, the restaurant's beverage manager who has updated drink recipes from the restaurant's earlier days. Granddaughter Chase Kamata narrates.

Chase Kamata

Historical highlights in the series include visits by distinguished guests to the restaurant. The Chase chefs will share a recipe for Grits and Quail that Leah served in 2008 to President George W. Bush during a North America Leaders' Summit.

The restaurant's significant place in the history of the Civil Rights Movement is commemorated with preparation of Creole Gumbo, a dish Leah served to Martin Luther King Jr. and other social activists when they held strategy sessions in the restaurant's upstairs dining room. Today Dooky Chase's Restaurant remains a crossroads of culture and community, where gumbo is still a favorite of customers from all walks of life.

Dook Chase speaks for the family when he says, "My grandmother's motto that she lived by was 'pray, work and do for others.' That was a seed planted into us and what we continue to live by."

In the kitchen, the chefs share their family recipes, plus prepare new dishes from the younger generations. Over the course of the 26-part series viewers will enjoy over 80 dishes and cocktails. Some favorites include Fish Cakes with Citrus Beurre Blanc, Grits and Quail, Peach Cobbler and Leah's Creole Crown Cocktail. These recipes can be found online at wyes.org/dookychase.
