MASKED FOR BATTLE: MARDI GRAS INDIAN CULTURE CONFRONTS COVID

Saturday, February 3 at 8pm; Monday, February 5 at 9pm; Sunday, February 11 at 3pm; Tuesday, February 13 at 5pm;

The documentary captures the stories of Black masking Indians, devastated by the COVID-19 pandemic but equally determined to persevere. The lockdown also deprived Black masking Indians of practices essential to the century-old tradition: communal craft work, community gatherings and open-air street performances. With a second consecutive Carnival canceled in 2021, some wondered if they would ever return to the streets in intricately crafted suits of beads and feathers—or if their unique New Orleans tradition would become another victim of the pandemic. Photo Credit: Pableaux Johnson

GOSPEL

Part 1 of 2: Monday, February 12 at 8pm; Part 2 of 2: Friday, February 16 at 9pm; Parts 1-2 of 2: Saturday, February 17 at 8pm

From the blues to hip hop, African Americans have been the driving force of sonic innovation for over a century. Musical styles come and go, but there's one sound that has been a constant source of strength, courage and wisdom from the pulpit to the choir lofts on any given Sunday. GOSPEL, the latest history series from Henry Louis Gates, Jr., digs deep into the origin story of Black spirituality through sermon and song. New Orleans native Mahalia Jackson is prominently featured. Pictured: Tyrell Bell and the Belle Singers, featuring Ian Johnson, perform "Can't Nobody Do Me Like Jesus" Photo Credit: McGee Media

THE 2024 REX BALL AND THE MEETING OF THE COURTS OF REX AND COMUS

Tuesday, February 13 at 7pm and 11:30pm

WYES host and producer Peggy Scott Laborde, along with Errol Laborde, Carnival historian and author of Mardi Gras: Chronicles of the New Orleans Carnival and Will French, Rex Organization historian, provide commentary throughout the evening. The live program contains interviews with past and present Rex and Comus royalty along with historical video vignettes. Photo Credit: Kathy Anderson

BURIED HISTORY: FINDING OUR PAST

Wednesday, February 14 at 10pm; Saturday, February 17 at 5pm; Wednesday, February 21 at 3pm & 10pm

The documentary takes viewers on a journey with veteran journalist Warren Bell, who discovers unknown parts of his own family history and lesser known, but important, aspects of New Orleans' unique Black history, after taking over a neglected family tomb at the historic St. Louis Cemetery Number 2. Experts also share resources available to those wanting to start their own family research. Produced by Warren Bell and directed and edited by David M. Jones.
